Summary:

Twenty-three years working experience in Government & donor assisted projects with reference to NRM, community development, capacity building and participatory planning monitoring and evaluation. As an academican, remained lecturer in Sociology at Kohat University of Science and Technology and The University of Agriculture Peshawar for six years, as Assistant Professor in Department of Rural Sociology the University of Agriculture for eight years and as Associate Professor in Department of Rural Sociology the University of Agriculture till date. I taught subject of Sociology at Post Graduate level besides supervising research. In NRM sector, I worked as a team member in preparation of a number of Resource Management Plans, conducted training programs at community level and research on the dependency of communities on Natural Resources for their livelihood. I have played an important role in the coordination of different teams to develop pilot Village Plans focused to formulate interventions based on Human Rights, Poverty Alleviation, Capacity Building and Decentralization; and participated actively in the elaboration of the concept "Participatory Resource Management". I have performed "Participatory Monitoring & Evaluation", "Livelihood Strategies", "Capacity Building", "Participatory Technology Development", "People Centered Approach", preparation of PC-1/project proposal etc. Also devised a REDD+ benefit sharing strategy for KP Forest Department under the umbrella of REDD+ project (KP section). In addition, assessed carbon stock in agriculture sector of KP province and analyzed risks and benefits of REDD+ under PFI lead REDD+ Project. Remained tem member in third party evaluation via SWOT analysis of AJK Forest Department and AKLASC, and Insaf food security Program (KP component). Worked as Co-Principal Investigator in value chain analysis of selected agricultural commodities in FATA, in addition, conducted a baseline survey on subsistence and commercial agriculture in newly merged districts (also sponsored by FAO). I also prepared a report on social mobilization and data collection process for SFM project focusing on Siran and Kaghan Forest Divisions. In addition, I remained editorial member of several national and international journals and Associate Editor of Sarhad Journal of Agriculture.
